A Beautiful Location

Residents here will enjoy over 225 acres of open space, parks, bike paths and hiking trails, while a trip downtown offers cultural attractions, museums and schools.

Since the beginning, historic Santa Paula has been known for its natural beauty and ideal climate. Today, it's just minutes from fantastic shopping, dining and entertainment destinations. And for those looking to explore, it's only a short drive to iconic nearby beaches and the Los Padres National Forest.

Green Living

Like much of Santa Paula itself, Harvest at Limoneira is deeply rooted in nature.

Take a stroll through the hillside for your pick of fresh Meyer lemons and avocados or follow the trail through preserved open space.

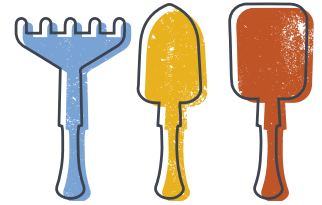

A range of single-family homes offers easy comfort and room to grow with first-floor bedrooms in spacious one- and two-story designs. Plus, bright and airy gathering areas and indoor-outdoor living spaces mean there's something here for everyone.

The Farmhouse

With over two acres of modern-day recreation area with old-world charm, The Farmhouse is both a community center and a destination for healthy, sustainable living.
